A Note from Sr. Karen . . .

You may have thought that celebrating Halloween and All Saints Day were more than enough for one weekend, yet there was much more. Both the Sisters of St. Joseph and the New York Province of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) welcomed new members; Sr. Melissa Gernon, SSJ professed her first or temporary vows in Rochester and Fr. James Martin, SJ professed his final solemn vows in New York. This weekend Sr. Pat Black, RSM will profess her final vows as a Sister of Mercy in Rochester! This Church of ours is alive and well – even on the vocation front.

I attended Sr. Melissa’s Vow ceremony and it was simply beautiful and joyful and touching. Her theme was light and how all it takes to start a fire is one small spark or light. I believe she imagines herself to be that spark ignited by the love of God. And the fires in her life are her family, the Sisters of St. Joseph, her pre-school class and so many others. By her public profession of vows, she is declaring before God and all of us that she joyfully accepts the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience as the way she is called to live the Gospel.

Melissa ministered here at St. Agnes every Friday this past summer. Many of our shut-ins enjoyed praying, conversing and laughing with Melissa. By your generous hospitality, Melissa learned one more way of bringing the light of Christ to the world. I am grateful for your witness and I know she is grateful for the experience.

As I often say, together we can do more than we can do individually. Together let us help one another name our gifts and discern the ways we are called to bring Christ’s light to the many places of darkness in our world.

Blessings, Sr. Karen

Get into the Acts!

32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time
Week of November 8, 2009

Read: Acts 9: 1 - 30

Reflect: This section of Acts describes Saul’s conversion experience, and vividly shows how Saul’s fervor for God became expressed in a new way because he was open to a new understanding of his faith. The other Christians were, at first, suspicious of Saul because of his previous persecution, but Barnabas spoke on Saul’s behalf describing how he spoke the Good News with courage. What has been one of my conversion experiences? How did opening myself up to a new understanding of God change my faith? Have I ever risked standing up for another in my community, as Barnabas did for Saul? How was I received? How did it change how I understand being a disciple? How did it change my community? Did anything else stand out for me in this section of Acts?

Act it Out! How do my reflections today inform how I will live out my discipleship in the world this week?

Could I ...seek out a person with a different political or social perspective and try to better understand their point of view? ...advocate for the marginalized or voiceless in my school or community? ...try a new form of prayer or go to a new retreat center to expand my devotional experiences? How else could I act it out?

Flowers for Christmas

You may have noticed an envelope in your packet for Christmas flowers. Hopefully, as you come to Church each week, you have also noticed that Jean Mathis and Laura Roland are trying very hard to see that we have beautiful arrangements of flowers in Church every weekend. Though we take as much from personal gardens as possible, the remainder is provided for based on your donations, for Christmas and beyond! Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Prayer for Peace

This Tuesday evening is our monthly Prayer for Peace at Church. We gather once a month as a community to pray for peace in our world, our cities, our community and our families. In this busy world there is so much violence and fear. Prayer is one of the strongest antidotes. Please join us for this time of silence, readings and quiet music. This is a prayer form that can be enjoyed by the whole family.

“Keeping the Spirit Alive”

The active phase of our parish CMA campaign continues. Thank you to the 119 households who have responded with a gift or pledge. If you have not yet responded, please give consideration to your financial participation. During this week, another letter and pledge form will be mailed to everyone who has not yet responded. The Catholic Ministries Appeal provides funding for important programs, services and ministries that strengthen our whole Church. We need your financial support to reach our potential. Thank you and please pray for the success of our efforts.

Building Faithful Citizenship

The two widows are the heroes and role models of our readings today. They are the “poorest of the poor”. Although neither one knows what life will bring, they step out in faith, and take the next “God-step” in their life’s journey. They are not shackled by fear, the unknown future, or material attachments and so they have the freedom to do God’s will. Unbound and unfettered, they are free to respond to God’s radical call to hospitality and generosity.

Reflection: What fears and attachments do we need to recognize and shake off so we are free to respond to God’s call? How is God calling us to be more hospitable and generous in these unstable times?

Thanksgiving Celebrations

This year there will be two opportunities for us to come together in honor of the Thanksgiving holiday, to recall the many ways God has blessed us. On Sunday, November 22 at 6pm we will gather at Central Presbyterian Church (on Genesee St. next to the library) for an ecumenical service. Ministers from each of the local churches will participate in this service. On Thursday, November 26th we will celebrate the Eucharist with the communities of St. Paul of the Cross and St. Rose at a 9:00 AM Mass at St. Rose. It is our hope that the St. Agnes Folk group will lead the music at that Mass. What a wonderful time to pray with our brothers and sisters!

Got Christmas Cards??

The Knights of Columbus, Caledonia, NY will be selling Christmas Cards after Mass on the weekends of Oct 31 – Nov. 1, and Nov. 7 – 8. The proceeds of the sale will go to support a seminarian in The Diocese of Rochester. What a great way to get started with the Christmas Season and support a wonderful cause. Questions please contact Peter Hecht 226-6315.

Cemetery - Fall Clean Up

Twice a year - Fall and Spring - special attention is given to cleaning the cemetery grounds to be ready for the next season and new tributes. In order to maintain the beauty and serenity of our cemetery, you are asked to remove old floral tributes as well as containers by mid November.

Church Building Update

Last year our wonderful volunteers stripped and painted the trim around the front doors. This year we had the front doors professionally done. Please take notice how attractive our entrance way now compliments our beautiful interior.

The next items were a series of events. Mark, Mike Manning, and Bob Schliiff had a need to go into the attic of the church. While there, they noticed that the window above the rose window was very much in need of repair. The lead and solder had broken down loosening the panes of glass. Because the opening (above the Organ) is so small, it was necessary to locate a lift to remove the window from the outside. While using the lift, it was noticed that the wood framing securing the rose window was rotted. We were assured that we could wait until Spring to have the window secured with a molding that would be weather resistant.

If we could find someone that is able to restore/repair old plaster then we would be able to make the attic entrance larger for any future need. If this is one of your talents or if you know someone we could approach with this request, we would love to hear from you. Please be in touch with one of us. Lynne Siragusa, Mark Savino or Mike Manning.

Workshop to Assist in Planning for Health Emergencies, Anointing of the Sick and Funeral Arrangements

Have you wanted to take some steps in preparation for any future hospitalizations, or even your funeral arrangements? Many of us want to save our family unnecessary anxiety at a time fraught with fear, sadness and grief. If you would like to begin looking at these questions, Sr. Karen will lead a workshop on Thursday, November 19 at 10 AM and Tuesday November 17 at 7 PM. A workbook to guide you through some decisions will be available, as well as ample time to ask questions and talk with others. This will primarily be an informal time for sharing concerns. If you would like to attend, please call the office to let us know – so that we can order enough books.
