

Reach out to the Teens and Adults in your Parish...and plan to join the Diocese of Rochester as we make our biennial pilgrimage....2011 to Indianapolis!

WHAT is NCYC?

The National Catholic Youth Conference is a biennial gathering for youth in high school. Over 20,00 Catholic youth from around the country - and even the world - attend.

WHEN - WHERE - HOW MUCH?

November 17-19, 2011 in Indianapolis, Indiana $595 - $695

WHO?

All teens in grades 9-12 and Adults

Is There Anything Else I Need to Know?

Yes! The 2011 theme is Called to Glory and is based on Matthew 25:31-46

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne," (Mt 25:31)

Teens and Adults will be challenged to search for the glory of Christ, to connect with the glory of Christ, and to share the glory of Christ with others by being church to one another.

Christ calls each person to share in his Glory, to participate in our own unique way by serving those around us. when we answer Christ's call to glory by performing works of mercy and practicing the beatitudes, we seek not our own glory, but we give glory to God by serving the Christ that lives in others.

Daily Themes

Friday Morning:
Search for Christ
(Deuteronomy 4:29)

Friday Evening:
Connect with Christ
(Luke 19:45-48)

Saturday Morning:
Share Christ
(1Peter 3:15)

Closing Liturgy:
Be Church
(Matthew 25:31-46)
